JOHNSON HANDS MACKS A SHUT-OUT---ARMY-NAVY GAME PLANS COMPLETED---OTHER SPORT NEWS

Johnson Is Invincible, and Arrangements for Griffs Win Seventh Straight

It may have looked like an act of unnecessary cruelty on the part of C. Calvin Griffith to have sent Wal-ter Johnson in to browbeat the downtrodden Mackmen yesterday.
But the peerless pitcher was pining sway for exercise, so what else could the National boss do but let him have his way?

The turn of events proved disastrous to the visitors, for the big how was at his tonmost form. Let a large the downtroder in the large transfer of the big how was at his tonmost form. Let a large the large transfer of the boy was at his topmost form, let-ting the foe down with three hits and blanking in easy fashion. score was 7 to 0, as the Griffmen used their bats with damaging effect upon the offerings of Moore and Rommel.

Judging from yesterday's per-formance, Barney is himself again, which means much to the team in its fight to catch the leaders in the pennant chase.

Tilly Walker rapped a clean double to left in the first round, but from that time on not another hit registered until the ninth, Thomas and Walker singled. Save for the three hits, the only men look foolish at the bat. He worked with the presision of clock work and was never in the hole. Perfect control was an added asset, not an enemy receiving a base on

With Johnson pitching his best and the team as a whole hitting with their usual class, there was nothing to mar the afternoon for the fans who crowded the stands to see the Griffs hang up their seventh straight victory at the expense of the cellar occupants. Thirteen hits were registered by the Nationals, including triples by Shannon, O'Neill and Picinich. Nine of these came during the tenure of office of Moore, who worked hard against hopeless odds. He retired who had no better luck.

O'Neill's error marked the only misplay of the locals. With this ex- speed.

It was here that Rommel entered the box, and Milan, appreciating the cimcumstance whic hgave him a hight-hander to face instead of a southpaw, drove a single to right, scoring Johnson. Judge also counted when Welch's throw to the plate evaded Myatt, and Zeb came to a halt at third. On Rice's tap to Rommel, Zeb was run down, but prolonged his demise long enough to allow Sam to caper around to third, from whence he counted on Roth's double.

UMPIRE'S DECISION BRINGS GAME TO HALT

Dispute over an umpire's decision brought the ball game between Aloysius Club and the Knickerbockers to a sudden end in the seventh inning yesterday. With the score tied at seven runs apiece, Holbrook, third baseman of the Aloysius team, hit a ball on which he was thrown out at the plate. team-mates maintained that the ball went out of the umpire's sight and should have been a home run. Upon their refusal to play the game was forfeited, 9 to 0.
